The Owl who was Afraid of the Dark has been one of my favourite stories for as long as I can remember. I originally lived in Newcastle, where my father was a coal miner, but he was offered a much better job in the coalfields of Nottinghamshire. So, in 1977, our family packed our belongings and moved 150 miles to a new life in the countryside. I was only 7 years old; this was the most scary text The Owl who was Afraid of the Dark My copy of this book is probably as old as I; it is bashed, bruised, torn and tattered and there is cellotape holding the pages in, as well as some of the pages together as a whole. It is, quite delightfully, a wonderful children's tale about a Barn Owl named Plop who is afraid of the dark.
